Abstracts are invited in all areas and aspects of this field, including, but not limited to:

- Sociolinguistics of the Spanish-speaking World
- Spanish Discourse Analysis
- Spanish in contact with other languages
- Spanish linguistics and migrations
- Cybercultures: Spanish and social media
- Language policy and planning in the Spanish-speaking world
- Spanish Translation and Interpretation: Theory and practice
- Teaching Spanish for specific purposes
- Inclusion and the Spanish language
- Linguistic approaches to literature in Spanish
- Linguistic landscapes in Spanish: Cities and languages

The KFLC has a tradition of attracting scholars from a broad range of languages and specializations. This year we particularly encourage submissions related to our theme—The Challenges of Defining Diversity in a Globalized World—but, as always, we welcome all scholarly submissions relevant to our disciplinary tracks.

Paper presentations are 20 minutes followed by a 10-minute question & answer session. In addition to individual abstracts for paper presentations, proposals for panels of 5 papers will be considered. Presentations are invited in both English and Spanish.

Individually submitted abstracts should be no more than 250 words. Participants should submit no more than one abstract as first author.

Panel proposals of 5 presentations should be submitted per the following instructions:

- The panel organizer MUST electronically submit a panel proposal. The panel proposal cannot exceed one page in length and should include the theme of the panel, the organizer's name and contact information, and the names, contact information and affiliations of the panel participants.
- Each participant MUST submit an individual abstract using our online system in addition to the panel proposal. Please indicate that your presentation is part of a pre-organized panel and list the title and organizer of the panel following the abstract.

Please visit our website for details pertaining to the track that interests you. Be sure that your paper or panel is prepared according to the track's guidelines including, but not limited to, the format and the language of presentation. Acceptance of a paper or complete panel implies a commitment on the part of all participants to register and attend the conference. All presenters must pay the appropriate registration fee by Friday March 1st, 2024 to be included in the program. Failure to pay by this deadline will result in the immediate removal of your abstract from the conference program. We will attempt to contact you before removing your presentation.

For general information about the conference and paper presentation guidelines, and to submit abstracts and panel proposals BY NOVEMBER 15th, 2023, please visit our website: <https://kflc.as.uky.edu/>
